

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has brought some peace to my and my wife's lives after we finish our stressful work days. It has also saved me time. I used to receive 10 + calls per week, now I rarely receive one. I pay for my phone service; therefore, I should have control of who I talk with on my phone. Thank you.